

Treat All in Resource-Constrained Settings:

Lessons Learned from Zimbabwe and Implications for National and Regional Roll-out of HIV Test and Treat Strategies

Co-organized by the Zimbabwean Ministry of Health and Child Care, AIDS & TB Unit and Organization for Public Health Interventions and Development

Sunday, July 23, 2017

10:15 – 12:15

Room 251

Palais des Congrès

AGENDA

9:45-10:15	Registration
10:15-10:25	CHAIR Dr. B. Engelsmann , OPHID Country Director Welcome and Introductions Brigadier General, Dr. G. Gwinji , Permanent Secretary for Health and Child Care, Zimbabwe
Part I	Zimbabwe's HIV Care and Treatment Program
10:25-10:35	Zimbabwe's Shift towards Treat All: National context Dr. G. Mhlanga , Principal Director, Ministry of Health and Child Care
10:35-10:40	Families and Communities for Elimination of HIV (FACE HIV) Program Dr. B. Engelsmann , Country Director, OPHID
Part II	Zimbabwe's Treat All Learning Phase: Local Implementation Evidence For Optimizing National Scale-Up
10:40-10:55	Implementation & Impact of Treat All: Lessons from Big Data and Assessment Findings Dr. T. Maphosa , Technical Director, OPHID
10:55-11:10	MOHCC Guidelines and Operational Service Delivery Standards: The 'what' and the 'how' of Treat All in Zimbabwe Dr. T. Apollo , AIDS & TB Unit, Ministry of Health and Child Care
11:10-11:20	The Treat All Toolkit: Learning Phase Lessons to Optimize National Scale Up in Context K. Webb , KMIA Director, OPHID
Part III	Optimizing Scale-Up Of Treat All In Low Resource Settings – Where To From Here? An Interactive Panel Discussion
11:20- 11:35	Implementation Science for Universal HIV Treatment: Challenges and Opportunities Dr. E. Geng , Associate Professor, UCSF
11:35-11:50	Panel Discussion: Optimizing Scale Up of Treat All in Resource Constrained Settings: Where to from here? Brief Presentations from various perspectives: Health system (MOHCC); Implementer (OPHID); Implementation science (USCF)
11:50-12:10	Q&A and Comments Open discussion
12:10-12:15	Closing